

Story:Web Research – Consent Form

You are invited to take part in research on Story:Web – an interactive media system for museums and social media that could be used to think about environmental issues. Before you decide whether to take part it is important that you understand what the research is, and what it will involve. Please take time to read the Information for Participants document carefully and ask one of the research team if there is anything that is not clear or if you would like more information.

Please tick below, to confirm you have understood the information you have been given, and are aware of the implications of participating in this interview:

1. I understand the purpose of the research
2. I have been given the chance to ask questions about the project, and these have been answered to my satisfaction
3. I am willing to be audio and video recorded for this research
4. I understand that I can withdraw my consent at any time, by notifying the researcher
5. I am aware that my data may be used anonymously for research and evaluation purposes

I agree to Simon Bowen (Open Lab, simon.bowen@newcastle.ac.uk, 0191 208 4630) recording and processing this information about me. I understand that this information will be used only for the purpose(s) set out as described to me, and my consent is conditional upon Newcastle University complying with its duties and obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998.
